investigation conducted in the United Kingdom. However, hand written document relating to an interview of Peter Bleach was sent by the U.K. authorities as a piece of evidence alongwith the Execution Report of Letter Rogatory. A copy of this document was given by CBI to the accused, who found that certain paragraphs were missing, when compared with another copy of the same document, received by him through British High Commission. Mr. Stephen Elcock, British Detective Sargeant, during his examination in the trial Court, admitted that these Paragraphs were missing due to a photocopying error.
